MAY 1, 2017 PROGRAM . . . EDUCATION

At the February 2017 Callaway County Democratic Club meeting, many questions were asked in regard to Missouri's educational system and how changes being considered in the Legislature would affect the five public schools located in Callaway County. Among the questions posed were those which concerned school choice, school vouchers, charter schools and foundation funding.

In order to voice our opinions to our elected representatives, we must be informed!

So we decided to ask the experts who could best answer our questions - the five superintendents and one incoming superintendent of the five public schools in Callaway!

This is an informational meeting only! In no way whatsoever are our guests being identified as members of a political party because of their participation. We are honored they have all agreed to come and join a panel discussion regarding these important subject.

The panel will consist of the following superintendents:

- Dr. Jacque Cowherd, Fulton Public Schools
- Kevin Hillman, South Callaway R-II
- Dr. Larry Linthacum, Jefferson City Public Schools (Holts Summit)
- Dr. Bryan Thomsen, North Callaway R-I
- David Tramel, New Bloomfield R-III
- Sarah Wisdom, incoming superintendent for New Bloomfield R-III

After the initial presentation by panel members, they will be open to questions from our members.

Please mark your calendar for this very important and informative meeting.
We must be well informed about the future of our public educational system!

We are indeed fortunate to have this impressive group of administrators who are willing to explain these important issues to us.

Bring a friend, bring a teacher, bring a new Democrat!
